

Ines Hegedus-Garcia
Executive Vice President, Avanti Way Realty

Ines Hegedus-Garcia is a distinguished real estate leader and the Executive Vice President at Avanti Way Realty, where she drives innovation and strategic growth across the organization. Known for her forward-thinking approach and early adoption of social media, Ines has been instrumental in leveraging digital platforms to transform how real estate professionals engage with clients and the market.

Her extensive leadership experience includes serving as the 2023 Chairman of the Board of the Miami Association of REALTORS®, alongside active roles with the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) and Florida REALTORS®. As a recognized thought leader, Ines frequently speaks on global stages about the intersection of marketing, technology, and real estate. With a background in architecture and a commitment to inclusivity, she offers a unique perspective that benefits both industry professionals and consumers, making her a trusted leader in shaping the future of real estate.

